Extension Work Part Of Program Set By Ontario JCCA Conference

Chatham, Ont.

This quiet town on the banks of the Thames River in South Ontario was the site of the Fourth Annual Ontario JCCA Conference on Feb. 24-25 as 20 delegates and representatives from four of the province's seven JCCA chapters, the Ontario Executive Committe, and the National JCCA convened at the local YMCA to report on activities of the past year and to discuss the future program.

Problems of finance, organization, delegation to the coming National Conference, and the site of the next provincial office were mulled over.

The Conference went on record in a resolution to express sincere appreciation of the Co-operative Committee and the National JCCA Executive Committee for the work they had effected as to property claims. It was also resolved to suggest to the National Conference a study of ways and means of raising funds apart from fund drives in order to consolidate the National treasury, and also to consider the possibility of standardizing membership fees.

FIRST DAY

The opening session of the two-day conference presided over by chairman Harvey Moritsugu of St. Thomas was marked by reports from the local chapters of Kent, London-St. Thomas, Hamilton, and Toronto, and also the Ont. Executive Committee.

George Tanaka, National Executive Secretary, reviewed the work of the National JCCA from the time of the National Conference in Lethbridge in 1949. Commenting on the work done by the Civil Liberty groups with which the JCCA is connected, on the Fair Employment Practices Bill, he stated that if all JCCA chapters cooperated with other organizations in this manner, their work will bear fruit.

Extension of JCCA work was an important point in the afternoon session. It was decided to study the extending of the JCCA to areas hitherto untapped such as the Japanese families living in Welland, Galt, Guelph, etc., as well as investigating the situation in Kapuskasing, Lakehead, and the Oakville-Niagara districts. Last year a contingent from the Ont. Executive had canvassed the Oakville-Niagara districts and had uncovered interest in the JCCA and a desire to meet.

SECOND DAY

The proposed budget for 1951-52 was set at $4,000, a decrease of $40 from the previous year's quota. It was proposed to bring up the matter of raising funds on a national scale, such as a scholarship fund, and for the Ontario delegates to discuss this as well as other financial problems at the National Conference.

The conference elected Fred Kayahara of Toronto, Sam Yamada and Kumy Yoshida, both of London, to form Ont. JCCA's official delegation to the National Conference in March 23-27.

Kent JCCA Hosts To Ont. Confab

CHATHAM, Ont. — The Kent County chapter of the JCCA played host to the Ontario Conference and the three visiting chapters and the provincial committee. Murray Kayahara, Bibo Nagao, Tak Aoki represented Kent.

Delegates from Hamilton were Grace Shintani, Wes Hyodo and Gordon Okawa. From London-St. Thomas came George Obokata, Bob Nunoda and Tak Ozaki. Kinzie Tanaka, Yoshio Hikida, Masuko Iguchi, Fred Kayahara, and R. Nobuoka (Issei-bu) were the delegates from Toronto.

The Ontario Executive Committee was represented by Kumy Yoshida, John Kumagai, Sam Yamada, Fred Nishizaki, and Fred Sunohara, all from London. George Tanaka, National Executive Secretary, represented the Nat. JCCA.

Also present were T. Kameoka of Toronto and R. Ide of Ingersoll.

Each local chapter is to send one official observer delegate. Toronto will also send an Issei delegate.

Each local chapter is to submit their choices for "Outstanding JCCA Workers" who are to be awarded with special JCCA pins The nominees are to be selected for their work as "pioneers" in forming and carrying on the JCCA.

Toronto is to be the site of the Provincial headquarters for 1951-52 although the election of president of the new Ont. Executive Committee which will necessarily be in Toronto was withheld until a future time. London had been the site of the headquarters for the past two years. The 1952 Provincial Conference will be held in London with the time tentatively set in March.

A banquet and dance for the delegates was held in the YMCA building by the Kent JCCA, the host chapter. Mayor W. A. Donovan of Chatham welcomed the gathering and commented that the Japanese-Canadians could contribute much to Canada through some of their Japanese ancestral customs and that it would be folly to repudiate such customs in the belief that it would make them better citizens.

Nisei Couple On Groucho Marx Show Misses $5,000

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. — If you happen to tune in on NBC's "You Bet Your Life" with screen comic Groucho Marx on Wednesday, March 26, you'll be hearing a Nisei couple failing to answer the jackpot question worth $5,000. You'll also hear them being quizzed by Groucho about "go-between marriages" in Japan.

The Nisei couple, Henry Aihara and his wife, Karie Shindo, failed to answer the final question after they had come through on top in their preliminary quizzing. The show was taped and filmed for television showing here, recently.

Aihara, Pacific Coast conference champion in the broad jump and co-captain of the 1950 USC track team, and his wife, a noted singer of popular songs, were chosen by audience applause from a group of newlywed couples to appear on the show.

They chose the category of "fictional birds and animals" and raised their $20 to $306, the highest of the three couples on the program. They then got a chance at the $5,000 jackpot question which was: "Name the Dutchman who bought Manhattan Island from the Indians for $24?"

(Ans: Peter Minuit)

Although they missed the jackpot question, the Aiharas have the $306 for consolation money.

Mrs. Aihara appeared in the Columbia film "Tokyo Joe" in which she sang "These Foolish Things" in English and Japanese. She later recorded the song and has also appeared in recent months with the Mills Brothers, the Lionel Hampton orchestra and as a soloist on radio and television.

The Groucho Marx show is recorded in advance. The program on which the Aiharas appear is scheduled for national release over NBC on March 28.

It will also be shown on television during the same week.

By KEN ADACHI

Chatham, Ont.

It seemed to me that Saturday night in a small town outwardly has just about the same appearance as a Saturday night in a big town like Toronto.

Sprawling, bustling Chatham is my moot point. I spent last weekend in this town with a population upwards of 20,000.

I walked down the main street, hands in my pocket, coat-collar turned up, looking just like a native. I saw familiar sights: a salvation army group on one of the busy corners singing hymns, teenage girls in flat shoes strolling along the streets in groups going no place in particular, people buying tickets at the movie houses.

But then again, the Five-and Ten stores were still open, there were no glittering cocktail bars, or queues, and it only took about five minutes to walk through the business section.

At this point, I turned off into a side-street and leaned against the bridge-railing spanning the Thames River which courses sullenly and sluggishly through the town. I tossed a cigarette butt into the dirty-grey water and watched it being carried away by the current, helpless and inert, just like man who is carried away by destiny or fate, struggling but helpless.

Somehow I felt in a philosocal mood while peering into the unknown depths, something which I try to avoid. Cigarettes are necessary implements for this frame of mind and I couldn't find any cigarette butts in my pockets. The hamburger joint which one finds anywhere soon dispelled any thoughts.

But I thought to myself as I chain-smoked my way back through the town that this is the type of place I would like to settle down in my senility, sitting on a rocking chair, repenting my sins while sipping [illegible] of apple cider.

I suppose if one lived in a small town for a while—I don't [illegible] the longest I have lingered in one town was three days [illegible] could walk down the street [illegible] all kinds of people [illegible] and even shake hands with [illegible] official. The [illegible] a sure thing [illegible] the mayor of Chatham, a [illegible] after the [illegible] I can't imagine [illegible] hands with the [illegible] by any means.

[illegible] city one never [illegible] next door. I confess

Exodus Of Families Shelves Essex JCCA

CHATHAM, Ont. — The JCCA chapter in Essex County has been temporarily discontinued, it was reported. Exodus of the JC families from the area had reduced the approximate number from 22 to 10 families making it unfeasible to continue the organization. It may reorganize should an influx of families occur.

Geographical reasons kept Kapuskasing and Lakehead Nisei Club, an affiliated organization, from attending the Ont. Conference.

Activity in the Lakehead, however, has been pronounced. The club has held 18 general meetings as well as sponsoring many gatherings, and has also continued public relations work in the form of association with the YMCA, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs and the Home and School Association.

Canadian Niseis Arrive in 'Frisco'

SAN FRANCISCO — Names of 13 Canadians of Japanese ancestry returning to Canada appeared on the passenger list of the American President Lines S. S. President Wilson which docked here on Feb. 23.

The Canadians were Isao, Toshie, Koichi and Teruo Katsuyama, Noburo Koshida, Kiyoshi Nishihata, Teruo and Kikuko Nishikihama, Atsuo Taki, Sumio, Ray and Tadashi Uyeno and Kiyoshi Uyeyama.

Five Girls To Inaugurate First Alberta Oratorical

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — In the first event of its kind since evacuation, five Nisei high school students of southern Alberta, representing local JCCA chapters, will compete for provincial honors as well as for possession of the Turcotte Challenge Trophy in the first annual Alberta JCCA Oratorical Contest. The speechfest, which is expected to draw a large audience, is to take place here on March 4, at the Capitol Theatre, commencing at 3 p.m.

Three persons, all prominent in southern Alberta educational circles, have consented to act as judges for the contest. They are Miss M. Burwash, B. A., M. Ed., [illegible] staff of Taber High School; Mr. F. A. Fodd, F. Ed., LL.D., [illegible] Lethbridge Collegiate Institute; and Mr. L. H. Bussard, B. A., M. Ed., assistant superintendent of the schools of Lethbridge.

The contest is an inter-chapter affair of the Alberta chapter JCCA open to Nisei high school students [illegible] held annually.

Local eliminations are sponsored by the local chapters with the winner to enter the provincial finals to compete against other local finalists.

THE CONTESTANTS

In its first year, all entrants are girls. Representing Lethbridge North JCCA will be Noriko Ayukawa, a Grade 12 student at Turin High School who will speak on "The Students of Today Are the Citizens of Tomorrow". A resident of Iron Springs, she hopes to continue her studies

FEP SHOULD BE CANADA-WIDE

When the Fair Employment Practices bill becomes law in Ontario, it will be a historical event. The measure, designed to prevent discriminations of race, color or creed, in employment, will be the first of its kind to be enacted in Canada. It is heartily endorsed and welcomed by freedom and equality-conscious individuals and organizations as well as by those who have felt the stings of prejudice.

However Ontario is but one of the ten provinces. It will touch only about one-third of Canada's population and about the same proportion of Japanese Canadians. To be totally effective, it should not be confined within the bounds of one or even certain provinces, FEP legislation must span Canada to protect every Canadian from job discrimination. The Ontario law should be the start of a rolling snowball.

The act was not introduced without preliminary lobbying, nor as a political windfall or sudden liberalistic whim of the Ontario lawmakers. It came as the result of a growing public demand for action against discrimination. The government, no doubt, was impressed by the proddings of the civil liberties association delegations.

It is the same elsewhere. One must act to get action. Governments have to be shown that here is a need for it and that the people want it. Groups interested in FEP legislation must band together as they did in Ontario to make united representations. It is a slow process to be sure, however it's also a necessary one to get results.

The Ontario measure is a historical and a tremendous step forward that can be used as a pattern and a spur to move other provincial legislatures. This is a line of action which the provincial JCCA chapters can consider together with other minority and civil rights groups.

VOICE OF THE YOUTHFUL NISEI

The women, it seems, are to get all the say. A run-down through the list of competitors in the Alberta JCCA public speaking contest discloses not a single male orator. It's to be strictly an all-girl contest with what few male speakers there were being overwhelmed in the preliminaries.

But we are impressed by the number of entrants. In two of the local contests of which we had reports, six and seven students took part in each. This tends to disprove the scornful belief held by many older Nisei that the younger crop, by and large, have passive and shallow interests for no one of such limited sight can be induced to enter oratorical contests. This is a salutary sign of what we can expect of the budding Nisei and what goes on in their youthful minds.

The [illegible] of topics is varied and stimulating, and indicates a maturing outlook blended with youthful eagerness to tackle that which is more weighty than everyday matters. It is quite a mouthful to anyone let alone teenagers, and we commend them [illegible] for their selection.

We append to this comment that may the—[illegible] win.

Mr. Tsuyuki and the Fisheries Minister

Some Day I Could Tell It To My Children

By Jack Nakamoto

Ottawa

Three wise men from the Far East arrived recently in Ottawa bearing gifts for the Minister of Fisheries, the Hon. R. W. Mayhew and Mr. G. R. Heasman, Director of the Foreign Trade Service of the Department of Trade and Commerce.

One bearer of gifts was Mr. Kaizn Tsuyuki, whose showing of Japanese movies was familiar to us all in the west coast and who is now an official adviser of the Japan Fruit Growers' Cooperative Association as well as a spare-time correspondent in Japan for The New Canadian.

The other two were Mr. Ichiro Nakai and Mr. Chubei Kirino. The former is a member of the legislative assembly in Kanagawa prefecture as well as a superintendent of the fruit growers' cooperative association, while the latter, hailing from Ehime Prefecture, is the chief superintendent of the Union of Japanese Cooperative Association of Agriculture and Fruit Sales.

Both Mr. Mayhew and Mr. Heasman were members of the Hon. Mr. L. Pearson's diplomatic mission which made a trip by air practically around the globe a year ago last January. Their itinerary included stopping over in Japan where they inspected places and visited people engaged in respective industry which each government official was interested.

On request of The New Canadian I had made arrangements a few days earlier for the meeting of the Japanese party with the top Canadian government officials, but unfortunately the plans didn't work out as expected. Owing to unfavorable weather conditions, Mr. Tsuyuki and party were unable to arrive by plane on schedule. As a result, they missed seeing the Minister, but managed to meet his wife, and later, Mr. Heasman.

Visited Parliament

Upon speaking to Mr. Heasman over the telephone, I learned that he took the men for a drive to see the Parliament Buildings and the Experimental Farm. He said that only Mr. Tsuyuki spoke English; and later on, Mr. Heasman introduced them to members of the Import Division of the Department of Trade and Commerce where the importation of Japanese oranges was reportedly discussed.

As a gift from the fruit growers' cooperative, Mr. Heasman said he received a kimono-like male garment of pure silk, embroidered with a design of fans. He was told that it is a garment worn by an actor in a Japanese classical play.

When I inquired of Mr. Mayhew over the phone if he had seen the Japanese delegation, he answered in the negative. He felt very strongly about having missed them and asked me to visit him at his suite in Chateau Laurier.

As I stepped off the elevator he came to welcome me and then led me to his suite. Mr. Mayhew, with his graying hair and his shoulders slightly hunched, is a tall, gangling man. Mrs. Mayhew, on the other hand, stood upright and gave me the impression of a firm matriarch I see in the movies, but I soon discovered that she is very easy to talk to, friendly and thoughtful. She said she felt highly honored when the Japanese representatives bowed simultaneously to her during the presentation of the gifts. Speaking thus, she pantomined Mr. Tsuyuki thrusting forth the gifts at almost shoulder-high level and then bowing.

Fishing Poles

From a certain Suzuki family of the Japanese Fishermen's Association, Mr. Mayhew received the two most exquisite bamboo fishing poles. They are japanned or lasquered in dark brown, one is short and the other which is used for fly-casting, is twice as long measuring about 12 feet. They can be taken apart piecemeal and put away in small boxes. The Minister took great pride in assembling methodically the dozen or so bamboo sticks, ranging in lengths from about six to 12 inches.

Sticks are graduated in size and marked black with dents on them to indicate their top side. Each stick is inserted into one of the next large size until the smallest is pushed in, thereby forming a long pole. The Minister, admitting that it's a bit tricky to insert the sticks properly, gamefully flourished the pole, showing its flexibility and resilience.

Mrs. Mayhew, who was busily knitting away said that Mr. Tsuyuki had explained the bamboo pieces all came from one shoot. She continued by saying that the quality of the pole is in its clear, snapping sound emitted when the pole is bent and released suddenly.

On the little boxes neatly wrapped in white paper were Japanese characters which I translated to the Minister as reading 'honorable fishing poles.' On the coffee table nearby were two books on modern angling in Japan, printed in English. Mr. Mayhew also received an orange-and-white pure silk piece embroidered with the Japanese characters, 'long life' on one side and the map of Japan on the other.

During the evening there appeared at the suite two gentlemen and their wives. They were Senator and Mrs. F. W. Gershaw from Medicine Hat, Alta., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Little from Kirkland Lake, Ont. Mr. Little is a Member of Parliament representing Temiskaming constituency. They are apparently living at the Chateau for they came immediately after they telephoned, without hats or coats.

The Minister of Fisheries sounded his regrets again for not having been able to meet the Japanese party. He said he phoned the YMCA in New York in the hope of conveying his message of thanks, but failed to locate them. After leaving New York, the delegation were slated to visit Florida to inspect the orange groves and thence California.

On leaving Mr. Mayhew, I assured him that I would try my best to get hold of their address. When he kindly put my coat on for me, I came away musing that I could some day tell about it to my children when I get married.

The Limit Is 200

Exactly two months left to file your income tax. This is the only time of year when everybody's willing to call their mother-in-law their dependent.

Having trouble? We'll give you a hand. If you're married and have $2,000 exemption coming to you and you made $1,000,000 last year, the government will relieve you of $747,260 leaving you with a paltry $252,420. But you better not kick because in the States a person in the same unfortunate shoes would get clipped for $998,000, and next year it'll be $870,000.

Besides, he gets only $1,200 exemption. You pay tax on only $998,000 while the poor American has to take it on $998,800.

If you're only a small-time operator and just manage to make $100,000 with a $2,000 allowance, you hand out $50,360 and your American friend is taken for $60,776.

For your information, if you made hundred grands or better you're in a class of less than 200. 1950 Canada Year Book discloses that in 1947 there were 139 who made this bracket, and probably in the past three years a few more members might have joined.

But remember, April 30, 1951, is your last day.

Gives Away $1,200 On His Own Birthday

HONOLULU, T. H. — A Nisei plumber, Hajima Asanoma, who celebrated his birthday by giving away $100 each to 12 different community organizations was cited by the Honolulu Star-Bulletin recently as an inspiring example of world brotherhood action.

Asanoma, owner of the Standard Plumbing Co., called off birthday plans, and instead gave the money to welfare, hospital and other community institutions. The Star-Bulletin said, "There could be no finer expression of the idea of World Brotherhood than this."

Both of Asanoma's parents were killed in the atomic bombing of Hiroshima.

「ええ。」

と、別に逆らはず、

「氣分はね。それァ永い間、磨きがかかつておいでですし……お上手に御自分を隱すのに慣れていらつしやる。」

△カキの木四本で税金——日本の税の高いこと、何にでも税のかかることも評判だが、今度國税廳で發表した税の基準ではカキの木四本、ニワトリ四羽、ウサギ六羽をそれぞれ越してその卵や果實などを賣ると税がかかると發表したので これではアンマリだと國民の非難の聲が出ている

クエベック市協 一世部總會

【モントリオール發】クエベック市協の一世部では三月三日の土曜日午後七時半からセントラファエル・ハウスに於て定期總會を開催する

カブキは大入滿員 モ市劇團の熱演

△モントリオール各紙の寫眞入りの賑々しいトロント遠征記事に煽られたモ市カブキ一座は土、日の兩日の上演で全くトロント日系人をその熱演で酔わしてしまつた。凱歌あげて歸途についた一座の面々のなんと笑顔にあふれた輝しい面持ちこそ、無上の土産なのだ

一、二世を問わずまだまだ入會できる

賠償金受取手續未濟者に對して

△政府はカストヂアンに對して賠償に關する總ての事務を速やかに完了してオフイスを閉鎖することを強要して居るそうで、レリース完了の日限も近く決定される模樣である

△レリースを完了することを望ます且つコーペラチヴ・コミテーに今後のことを依賴する意志がないならその旨を知らせること

△若し一、二週間以內に返事がなかつたら、コーペラチヴ・コミテーと手を切つて直接にカストヂアンと交渉するものだと認めるほかない

ということを指摘し、レリース完了の如何に拘らずコーペラチヴ・コミテーに對する費用をカストヂアンが保留している賠償金から差引いてもよいという承諾書だけは完了して貰いたいと要請し、何れにしても至急に何分の返事をして貰いたいと述べている

京都で學校の先生をしていた永澤六郎氏（南北生）が、それをやめてから持病の慢性盲腸炎再發で、丹波の山奥にこもつて靜養して居られることは、ニューカナデアンの特別號に寄せた同氏の一文により舊知の人々が知つて居られることであろう。

こんなことをする私たちの行爲を、永澤さんが快よく思われるかどうか、或は失禮に當るかも知れない。しかし私たちは、永澤さんの舊知として、お互いの氣持を慰問という形で現わそうとするまでであるから、永澤さんもきつと喜んでそれを受けて下さることと思う。

Flyers Winging Along To Ninth Win In Row, Roy Kobayashi, Mori Bros. Produce Goals

Under manager-coach Mas Nakao's astute handling, the Nisei Flyers are racking up an enviable record, 9 wins, 1 tie, 1 loss, in the tough junior section of the Toronto Hockey League. In their three recent games, they won two, tied one. The "Production Line" of Roy Kobayashi, Ben and Sho Mori have been setting the pace.

For their 8th straight win, Flyers won on a fluke goal by Kobayashi in the dying minutes as the Nisei team edged Artistic Weavers 4-3 at Lester Corners ice arena. The lead see-sawed and at the end of the first period it was 2-2 for the Nisei with Sho Mori scoring twice and Kobayashi once.

Weavers poured it on in the second period and tied up the score, 3-3 but Bill Kurysh in the nets held them at bay until Kobayashi's "impossible" goal that bounced off the goalie's shoulders and rolled crazily into the mesh. Weavers lost all their fight after this heartbreaking goal and Flyers coasted in.

Flyers eked out a narrow 6-5 win for their 9th win in a ragged affair over Toronto Regents. In the spine-tingling but loosely-played game, the lead changed hands until the Nisei rolled up a 6-4 score with minutes left. The Regent's coach yanked the goalie in favor of an extra man and the strategy paid off as they made it 6-5 but time ran out for the losers.

The hard-pressed and weary defensemen, Sheldon Childerhouse and Key Tanaka, played full time and just managed to hold off the attack at the bell. Kaz Ishii who centers Dave Yonemitsu and Danny Kurysh, tallied two while the Big Line scored four.

From the mediocre effort against Toronto Regents, Flyers played one of their best games in tying Regent AC 4-4. Roy Kobayashi who was blazing hot, pulled the hat-trick to send his team into a 3-3 tie as the squads traded leads. In the 12 minute mark of the second period, Regent took a 4-3 lead but two minutes later when Regents were penalized, a well-planned power play by the Flyers clicked as Sho Mori tallied.

Both sides missed glorious chances to score and once Sho missed an open net on a breakaway. Flyers swarmed the Regent nets but had to be satisfied with a tie. Paul Tokiwa turned in a neat job at penalty-killing.

With four more league games scheduled, playoffs are looming for the Nisei Flyers who are really making a name for themselves in Toronto hockey.

Ex-Champ, Grid Coach At Brotherhood Rally

Brotherhood Week came to an end in Toronto with a rally held at the Imperial Theatre on Sunday, Feb. 25. Gene Tunney, former heavyweight champion of the world and Vic Obeck, McGill football coach and athletic director were the guest speakers before an audience of several hundred.

The ex-pugilist in his talk said that learning about all people and their cultural backgrounds and respecting them was essential in the attainment of brotherhood.

The McGill coach said that there were 60 nationalities and 35 religions represented at his school and that he picks the best men for his team according to ability, never with respect to race or religion.

R. Tanaka Scores Best for Evening

With two 300 games (315, 348) Yamada Studio's Roger Tanaka boasted the best batting average with a total of 869 pins, the third highest three game total for the current season in the Toronto Major set-up. It helped the photo-men knock Moonlite Grill 5-2 for one of its recent rare setbacks.

In the 700's were M. Matsumoto 778 (320), G. Ide 752 (336), J. Amemori 737, J. Kitamura and H. Inouye 711. J. Nishizaki and Tak Hayashida also turned in 300-games with each registering 325.

In play results: Queen City 5, Sammy's 2; Yamada 5, Moonlite 2; Danforth 7, Sora 0; O. K. 5, Spadina 2; El Mocambo 7, Takeda 0.

WK's Grab Lead In Playoffs, 64-58

Whizz Kids, making full use of their speed, jumped into an early lead then weathered a second half offensive to take the first game of the semi-finals from the Aces by a score of 64-58.

In the first half, the WK's ran circles around their taller opponents with Yuki Kameoka continually stealing the ball, and teaming up with Soe Shintani and Aki Koyonagi to blitz to a 40-17 margin before the halftime bell.

Early in the second half, Aki Hayashi and Frank Sumi came back to whittle down the lead to a scant two points midway through the period when the score stood at 44-42. From here on in, the game was close but the Kids were the eventual winners. Aki Hayashi stood out in the scoring column with 25 points while Soe Shintani and Yuki Kameoka were the golddust twins for the winners with 23 and 20 points respectively.

Whizz Kids: Shintani 23, Kameoka 20, Koyanagi 12, Kajioka 4, Fukumoto 3, Fujiwara 2, Miyasaki.

Aces: Hayashi 25, Miyashita 9, Sumi 8, S. Takata 6, Otsu 4, G. Takata 3, Arai 2, Onishi 2, Oda 1.

Sora's 406 in Mixed League Nisei High Game For Current Season, Ginger Teragita Av. 209

A single game mark of 406 held by Sumio Sora in the Toronto Nisei Major Mixed Bowling League is, as far as is known, the best single game record in any Nisei league this season. That is, according to the NC books.

His average of 230 is the highest in Canada too, however, he is believed to be a relative newcomer to the league and hasn't rolled sufficient games to warrant this ranking.

Ginger Terakita's 208 average is unquestionably the highest Niseiette average anywhere. Her average tops runner-up Kay Mitsuhashi by 11 points giving her a commanding lead. Other better averages among the girls are Shirley Morita 193, Tomoko Goto 189, Mary Ebata and Rose Ogata 187. Ginger's 786 is good enough for the top triple with Michi Isozaki 762 and Mary Ebata in 748 following.

Barbara Murata's 351 followed by Tomoko Goto's 348 and Kay Mitsuhashi's 330 are the current singles leaders.

Back among the men, Mas Isoshima has a 234 average, and in order Kaide Shimizu 227, Bob Miyauchi 223, Joe Tehara 222 and Terry Fujioka 219. Kaide Shimizu 865, Sumio Sora 842 and Mas Isoshima 827 are best triples while aside from Sora, Mas Endo 383 and Bob Miyauchi 382, are telescopic singles.

The league race has varied but little. The top teams are still up there and so on down the ladder. Stretchrunners with 101 points have a five-point lead on Rovers to make it a two-way race. Filibuster 82, Headpins 80, Hollarorgs 80 and Aces 79, are breathing on each other for show position. Among the also-rans Vagabonds 75, and Shooting Stars can close in fast. On the wrong end are Meteors 66, Dreamers 66, Rockets 64 and Schmoes 61.

Today, throughout Canada, the leaders and workers of the JCCA are deeply conscious of the fact that an important turning point has been reached in the life of Japanese Canadians and their community organization, the JCCA.

Because these JCCA leaders shoulder the responsibility of planning the future work of the JCCA, they are greatly concerned with the need to provide for adequate resources for the successful operation of the organization.

Just as a useful machine requires fuel to operate, the JCCA must have adequate funds to work efficiently for its members.

What does your JCCA dollar do for you?

The answer to this question lies in the hearts and minds of the JCCA leaders throughout the country who have gained a greater hope and faith for the future life of all Japanese Canadians through their close association with the JCCA.

Let us take, for example, the views of two of these Nisei JCCA leaders. Both are young, and both are presidents of their respective local JCCA chapters. Despite the fact that their positions entail responsibilities demanding great sacrifice of their leisure hours, and often cause them to feel heartbreak when the organizational problems are difficult, they can tell you the importance of the JCCA future work and what your JCCA financial contribution will do for you.

They will tell you that your contribution enables furtherance of the progress of Japanese Canadians!

They will tell you that the JCCA enables Japanese Canadians to be represented on many important occasions in Canada, such as the time when the question of a Bill of Rights for Canada was considered at Ottawa and many Canadian groups made representations, the Japanese Canadians were represented by the presentation of the JCCA brief; or when the JCCA spoke to the B. C. Fishermen's Union Convention and thereby gained Union recognition of the right of Japanese Canadians to fishing in B. C.; or when, as an affiliate of the Association for Civil Liberties, through diligent and hard work, it helped to influence the Government of Ontario to adopt for the first time in Canada, a Fair Employment Practices law.

The two young Nisei JCCA presidents can also tell you there is much important work for JCCA and that this work vitally concerns all of us. For they are also working to plan for tomorrow.

They could also inform you that through the work of the JCCA, they have gained a greater hope and faith for the future; a greater self-reliance and self-confidence; and most important of all, that they have gained a greater measure of self-respect both as an individual and as a representative of their fellow Canadian citizen.

That is what your JCCA dollar will help to do for all Japanese Canadians.

FOURTH NATIONAL JCCA CONFERENCE,
March 23 — 27, MONTREAL

PASSING THRU

I don't even know the people who live downstairs or even their names. The landlady's sole interest in our existence is the payment of the weekly rent. It is such a nice, friendly relationship.

Some nylon hosiery adorning a manikin's perfectly shaped leg in a department store window attracted my innocent gaze. (Whenever a male looks at nylon hosiery, he thinks of females). I thought of the lucky small town male and of the small bill he has to foot in comparison with his city cousin who has to pay the bill for a lot of high priced entertainment. All the small town male has to do is go for a walk in the park and hold hands. All this has to do with females of course.

The funny part of the whole thing is that as soon as the city dweller gets a vacation, he rushes off to the country, and the small town dweller rushes off to a big city like New York. The net result is that both of them usually find that the experience was a great change but that they really prefer home.

But one thing I know for sure, especially after coming back to the very plush hotel in which we were staying after the conference dance that the Nisei city girls have nothing on the small town girls. I sure wish I was back there looking at the pretty girls instead of pounding out this stuff on this ugly typewriter. Distracting, it is.

after graduation in journalism and short story writing.

"Our Duty in the Far East" is the topic chosen by the Coaldale JCCA hopeful, Reiko Okahashi, a popular Grade 12 student at the Coaldale High School. She is active in sports, particularly table tennis and basketball, and in YBA work, being a teacher at the Buddhist Sunday School. She is social convenor of the Coaldale YBA. At present she is the Coaldale JCCA candidate for the Coaldale Band Queen Contest.

Mary Endo of Barnwell is the winner of the Taber JCCA contest held recently. She is a Grade 11 student at Taber High School where she shines academically. She has won many elocution contests held in the Taber School Division. Her topic is "This Is My Canada."

Youngest of the contestants, Margaret Sonoda of Lethbridge Collegiate Institute, is a Grade 9 student who has chosen as her subject, "Turning Point in History". Born in New Westminster, Margaret is said to be a doctor in the making. She will represent Lethbridge JCCA.

The Raymond JCCA speaker will be Alice Moriyama who will talk of "The Prosperity of Alberta". She is the lone Alberta-born, Alberta-bred contestant and is a Grade 11 student at Raymond, Alberta.

THE JUDGES

Of the judges, Miss Burwash, a teacher in French and English has travelled extensively throughout the States and Mexico and last summer attended London University, in England. She is very interested in Oriental studies and is contemplating a thesis on the social problems of the Japanese Canadians.

Mr. Rudd, a social studies expert, last year won a prize in a Canada-wide essay contest sponsored by the Canadian Law Society. An authority on the United Nations, he is now president of the Senior UN Society of Lethbridge. At the Second Annual Alberta JCCA Conference he addressed the JCCA delegates on international affairs.

Mr. Bussard's particular field is modern education. Known as very progressive-minded, he has given lectures on the Methods of

Guest Speaker At Buddhist Service

The special guest speaker for the Toronto YBS morning service on March 4 at 11 a.m. will be Miss Betty Belt, who will speak on the topic "The Self in Buddhism." Service is to be held at 22 College St.

Miss Belt is a graduate in psychology from the University of Toronto. Recently she completed a series of lectures in psychology for the nurses at the Toronto Western Hospital. A long standing member of the Arya Society she has been particularly interested in the study of personality as taught by the Buddha.

A broad understanding of both modern and Buddhist psychology will enable her to present a highly enlightening talk. Miss Belt will have many solutions for the rediscovery of the true self. [illegible]

Brotherhood Week . . .

At the "Brotherhood Week" program at St. Andrew-Wesley United Church in Vancouver, Joe Miyazawa with Mrs. Maude Field represented the minority racial groups in Canada. Miyazawa spoke on the topic, "Of One Blood—And Hope".

March 4 is the date when organized labor meets to discuss problems of race relations. Under sponsorship of the Joints Labor Committee to Combat Racial Discrimination and under chairmanship of Darwin Charlton, CCL and TLC unionists will meet at the Labor Temple.

Greenwood Glaenings . . .

The Turcotte Challenge Trophy has been donated by Mayor L. S. Turcotte of Lethbridge to be placed for annual competition. Despite his preoccupation in his own legal profession and in his civic duties, Mayor Turcotte still finds time to assist the Japanese Canadians. He is a member of the Alberta Cooperative Committee and is well up on Japanese Canadian affairs. A Liberal in his political affiliations, he was just recently elected to his second term of office as mayor.

Six Speakers Vie As Raymond Rep., Alice Moriyama Wins.

RAYMOND, Alta. — Alice Moriyama, speaking on "Alberta Prosperity" topped six other youthful Nisei orators to win the right to represent Raymond in the Alberta JCCA Oratorical Contest to be held in Lethbridge on March 4. The winner was presented with the Raymond JCCA Challenge trophy and in addition Miss Moriyama received a bouquet of flowers from the Raymond YBA.

The contest, at the Buddhist Church on Feb. 20, with the participants speaking on a wide range of subjects, attracted and held the interest of the large Issei-Nisei audience.

Yoko Karaki speaking on "Future of the Youth of Alberta" was declared second, followed closely by Hanae Iwasa who chose "Tibet" as her subject. Other speakers were Setsuko Sugimoto "Importance of High School"; Lillian Hayashi "Newfoundland"; Masako Tadokoro "Canadian Citizen"; and David Miyauchi "Canadian Citizen". Second and third place winners were awarded individual trophies.

Three local high school teachers, Mrs. J. Laqua, Mr. L. H. Jacobs and Mr. H. T. King formed the panel of judges.

The evening's program was highlighted with a solo by Mrs. Hisako Takahashi and a short movie.
